

Acknowledgments

Creative Ministry Resources International (CMR) and Dr. Milton H. O. Maye are indebted to the many individuals who have contributed directly or indirectly to the completion, accuracy and content of this book.

Special thanks to Loraine Maye, a director of CMR, for her invaluable contribution in research and compilation of this book.

Dr. Peter Morgan and Dr. Patricia Morgan contributed significantly to the final formatting of this book. The time spent in reviews and meetings and the recommendations made have been voluminous. Special thanks to Dr. Patricia Morgan who dedicated time to give the Psalms edition its first editorial review.

Much love and appreciation for Victor, Zoe and Rhema Maye from whom the pull of destiny emanates for their patience and support that made this book possible. Their appreciation for and response to the Bible related in this format has confirmed that this book will prove an effective complement to children's ministry efforts and is relevant to children of all ages.

The godly influence of the late Lynette Maye and her dedication and flair in relating the word of God to her children has served to make this book a reality.

Encouragement and motivation came from Dorothy Bygrave who gave a copy of the Psalms edition of the People's Proverbs Bible to her son as a wedding present. This demonstration of her appreciation for this presentation of the Bible and her confidence in its relevance and potency has left an indelible mark.

The enthusiasm and tenacity of Yvonne Coke and the organization she started, Hands Across Jamaica For Righteousness, in presenting and promoting the national anthem, motto and pledge of her country, Jamaica, to every fabric of national life of that nation (government, businesses, schools, social and recreational arenas) as not just an emblem but a covenant with God that underpins every action in that nation, has influenced the dedication feature of this book.

We are grateful to Fresh Bread Ministries International and Pastor Philemon Samuels for their apostolic and pastoral oversight of this project and to Rev. Pauline Onojobi of Elim Churches, Southfields London for her prophetic oversight.

Thanks to Roger and Andrea Palms of Fort Myers, FL, for the time spent giving this book a detailed and professional substantive edit. The recommendations made and changes initiated have enhanced the accuracy and reading experience.

Special thanks to the management and staff of WinePress Publishing for their exuberance towards this book and for the patience and professionalism in its finalization. Thanks to Athena Dean, George Dillaway, Kevin Cochran and all the other members of their staff who have contributed.